CATALYSIS JOURNALS

Elsevier's catalysis publications provide the best home for your research. Our broad spectrum of high quality titles – including leading titles, Journal of Catalysis, and Applied Catalysis B: Environmental as well as the seminal book series Advances in Catalysis - and our range of publishing options ensure that you will find the perfect place to submit your papers.

Journal of Catalysis

The Journal of Catalysis publishes original, rigorous, and scholarly contributions of archival value in the fields of heterogeneous and homogeneous catalysis. These include studies that relate catalytic function to fundamental chemical processes at surfaces and in metal complexes, novel concepts in surface chemistry, the synthesis and catalytic function of novel inorganic solids and complexes, spectroscopic methods for structural characterization, and theoretical methods of direct interest and impact in the science and applications of catalysts and catalytic processes.

NEW: YOUR PAPER YOUR WAY

Authors may choose to submit manuscripts as a single file to be used in the refereeing process. See the Guide for Authors for more details.

NEW: FEATURED ARTICLES

Featured Articles are paper which the editorial team feels are worthy of extra attention, be it for the quality of the research, the clarity of the exposition or the novelty of the findings. Featured articles are free for 3 months after the month of publication and can be found at www.elsevier.com/locate/jcat.

Applied Catalysis A: General

AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL DEVOTED TO CATALYTIC SCIENCE AND ITS APPLICATIONS

Applied Catalysis A: General publishes papers on all aspects of catalysis of basic and practical interest, particularly those relevant to current industrial processes or future commercial applications

EDITORS

C.T. Au, Hong Kong Baptist University, China

J.S.J. Hargreaves, University of Glasgow, UK

H. Kung, Northwestern University, USA

J.M. Lopez Nieto, Universidad Politécnica de Valencia, Spain

C. Sievers, Georgia Institute of Technology, USA

Catalysis Today

A SERIAL PUBLICATION DEALING WITH TOPICAL THEMES IN CATALYSIS AND RELATED SUBJECTS

Concentrating on the rapid publication of topical papers, Catalysis Today differs from conventional journals in that each issue contains papers, reviews, or monographs focused on a common topic. Both fundamental and applied aspects of catalysis are covered.

Microporous and Mesoporous Materials

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL ZEOLITE ASSOCIATION

Microporous and Mesoporous Materials covers novel and significant aspects of porous solids classified as either microporous (pore size up to 2nm) or mesoporous (pore size 2 to 50 nm), including their applications. Both natural and synthetic materials are within the scope of the journal.

BOOK SERIES

Advances in Catalysis

Since 1948, Advances in Catalysis has filled the gap between the papers that report on and the textbooks that teach in the diverse areas of catalysis research. The editors of and contributors to the series are dedicated to recording progress in this area.

SERIES EDITORS

B. Gates, University of California at Davis, USA

H. Knoezinger, University of Munich, Germany

F. Jentoft, University of Massachusetts, USA
